

GUSHERS OF JOY IN "ALL ABOARD"

Oil and Oilers Mingle in Big Love and Fun Frolic Tuesday.

TULSALE PRODUCTION

Attractive Chorus and Large Tulsa Cast to Appear in Musical Comedy.

Ducks the Sahara desert have hidden in its bosom vast quantities of petroleum; can the secret be revealed by Princess Petroleum, a beautiful Egyptian mummy, who falls in love with an oil stock salesman from Tulsa, the Magic City of the world, when he, with Mr. and Mrs. Tulsa and Jazzy, a negro porter, and Miss Tulsa and others visit the land of pyramids and the Sphinx.

This complicated question will be answered when "All Aboard," the tuneful home talent musical comedy is presented at Convention Hall on the nights of April 26 and 27 under auspices of the Tulsa club.

The play is characterized by the producers as "litteral scenes from life." The girls will have a good assurance that there will be a laugh every minute, and that an attractive chorus will furnish a tuneful melody every ten minutes.

Replete with humorous situations and laugh-producing lines, "All Aboard" promises to break all records as a cure for the world case of blues.

It is the first musical comedy to be held around the oil industry and the ever-present stock promoter.

In the third act a male quartet composed of Chester Fleming, Walter Semmens, G. W. Wimberly and J. J. Peter will give a number of appropriate selections.

Mlle. Marion Louise Stolba, who has danced in many important cities, and whose reputation is well established in Tulsa, will execute an Egyptian dance during the third act. Miss Stolba, with her rare ability, depicts Princess Petroleum, who falls in love with the party who is already in love and whose dreams are replete with joys and sorrows. Of course, all things come to him who waits.

Bassett of Muskogee as successor to Chief Justice Thomas H. Owen of the state supreme court would be without avail.

Gov. Robertson stated that the law requiring the appointment of persons to fill vacancies in offices from the same political party as the elected predecessor has reference only to county officials.
